

festive centrepieces

Entertaining at home this Christmas and tired of the usual roast turkey centrepiece? Dress up your table with a personalised floral arrangement instead. More than just decoration, flowers — universally regarded as symbols of love and compassion — also have a mood-lifting effect. To make your centrepiece even more special, get one that goes with your party theme. Add unique touches like peppy candles, bottles of wine, or even unusual vegetables for instant dinner table conversation sparklers and get ready to soak up the compliments.

Winter Silvers floral arrangement, price on application, from Urban Desires. For more information, visit www.urban-desires.com
